7. Enrolment in the Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board (NCWEB)

All the candidates seeking admission to M.A. in English, Hindi, Sanskrit, Philosophy, Urdu, Punjabi, Arabic and Persian Courses in Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board must get themselves registered with the PG Teaching Centre of Non-Collegiate Women's Education Board in NCWEB, University of Delhi, Delhi-110007 on 08th, 15th and 22nd July 2012 between 10.00 am to 3.00 P.M. Since all the candidates in Non-Collegiate are taken on the basis of entrance test by the respective Departments in the Faculty of Arts they also have to register themselves with the Faculty. Giving the option of Non-Collegiate in the registration form with the Faculty is not sufficient for admission in Non-Collegiate Woman's Education Board. For further details, please contact directly the Director, Non-Collegiate Woman's Education Board, Tutorial Building, Second Floor, University of Delhi, Delhi-110007.

8. Enrolment in the School of Open Learning (SOL)

The candidates seeking admission to M.A. in Hindi and Sanskrit courses are advised to contact the Executive Director, School of Open Learning, 5, Cavalry Lines, University of Delhi, Delhi-110007 for further details.

N.B.: Minimum eligibility requirement of marks for enrolment in Non-Collegiate/ School of Open Learning/Evening Classes are the same as prescribed for admission to regular courses.

9. Admission for Foreign Students

Foreign students seeking admission to various courses are required to apply to the Foreign Students' Advisor, Foreign Students' Registry, Faculty of Management Studies, University of Delhi, Delhi -110007, who will process their applications for admissions in the Colleges/Departments directly.

10. Admission of Candidates from Nepal/Bhutan

The candidates sponsored by the Governments of Nepal and Bhutan for admission to M.A Course will be given 5% relaxation in the minimum marks requirements but there will not be any reservation of seats of such candidates in any course.

11. Reservation for Candidates Physically Challenged

- (i). Three percent (3%) seats in all undergraduate and postgraduate institutions (including professional and technical institutions) will be reserved for candidates with physically disabilities.
- (ii) Reservation will also be applicable to institutions where admission is through Entrance Examinations.
- (iii) Reservation will be implemented college-wise and as far as possible course-wise in under-graduate courses, keeping in mind the suitability of the various courses for physically handicapped students depending, inter-alia, on the nature and severity of their disability. The reservation will be implemented Department wise in post-graduate course, as well as in those under-graduate courses where teaching is available only in one Department/college.
- (iv) Candidate seeking admission under reservation as detailed in eligibility conditions except relaxation of 5% marks in the minimum eligibility conditions. In case of a course where admission is by entrance examination 5% concession shall be granted in the minimum eligibility condition for admission the test.
- (v) Candidates with physical disabilities who are able to secure admission in the general category will be counted in the 3% quota.
- (vi) The 3% reservation may be allocated as follows 1% for persons with low vision or blindness; 1% for hearing impaired; 1% for those with loco motor disabilities and/or cerebral palsy. However, if sufficient candidates are not available in a sub-category then candidates from the other sub-categories should be considered in their stead.
- (vii) Candidates with more than one type of reservation : This reservation shall cut across the existing reservations of SC/ST; children/widows/wives of officers and men of armed forces including paramilitary forces killed/disabled in action or those who died/were disabled on duty, etc. in accordance with the principle of interlocking reservations. Whenever there is a common merit between two candidates, i.e. one belonging to one reserved category and other belonging to the reserved as well as Physically Handicapped category, preference should be given to the Physically Handicapped candidates over the able bodied candidates. The Physically Handicapped candidates will simultaneously continue to avail benefit against the 3% quota reserved for them; provided the candidates apply under both the categories separately.

- (viii) If sufficient numbers of the candidates are not available under the reserved category candidates.
- (ix) College/Departments are free to exceed the 3% reservation quota if necessary. (Note-Ordinary, the number of seats reserved would be 01 for 33; 2 for 67 and 3 for 100 and so on. However, the colleges may round off the number of reserved seats to next higher level, if the number of calculated seats falls more than half way between two levels, e.g. for 54 seats the number of reserved seats would be 1.62, which may be rounded off to 2 through it may appear to be 4% quota. In essence, the nature of reservation should be enabling in spirit and the institution not feel prevented from exceeding the 3% quota.
- (x) The Dean Students' Welfare (DSW) will arrange for professional counselling of physically challenged students to enable them to decide about courses, keeping in view their aptitude, disability, and future career prospects.
- (xi) The disability certificate should be in the format as per Government of India guidelines :
 - (a) The certificate should not be more than 5 years old.
 - (b) It should be signed by a board of 3 doctors with legible stamp indicating the name & designation of the doctors.
 - (c) The certificate should be countersigned by CMO/Medical Supdt./ with stamp under the signatures. Certificate should have photograph of candidate.
 - (d) Diagnosis should be written clearly in the certificate.
